COURSE CERTIFICATION and ACCREDITATION

After a 5 year partnership, as an accredited regional educational provider with the Behavioral Coaching Institute (BCI), the Brazilian Institute of Coaching (IBC) has now been appointed the exclusive Master Licensee in Brazil for all our courses for the next 5 years.

To become a Licensed Master, José Roberto Marques, IBC President, graduated as the only Brazilian Advanced Senior Master Coach, the highest level of graduation at BCI.

During the last 5 years the Behavioral Coaching Institute has found IBC to have:

1. A very high level of satisfaction from it's students and clients
2. Excellent coaching methodology
3. A strong ethical commitment to their obligations as a learning institution.

The IBC is the leading Coaching School in Brazil by far, teaching world best-class courses certified by BCI and accredited by the International Coaching Council (ICC).

BCI only establishes partnerships with institutions truly committed to quality education capable of teaching students to perform at the highest level of coaching excellence.

Perry Zeus (April,2017)

Chairman Behavioral Coaching Institute

From: Graduate School of Master Coaches
To: Instituto Brasileiro de Coaching

The Graduate School of Master Coaches recognizes the Brazilian Institute of Coaching - IBC, for its special position in the Brazilian market as a leading provider of coaching practices and methodology. It follows that BCI has appointed IBC exclusive use of its manuals, materials and contents in the certification of Coaches.

BCI recognizes the commitment of IBC to offer complete and modern coach training programs that contain the latest teaching techniques and content. IBC's approach to training coaches in a systemic way uniquely qualifies them to be the only institution in Brazil recognized by the Graduate School of Master Coaches.

The great body of knowledge and world-best coaching practices and methodology developed over 20 years by the Graduate School of Master Coaches coupled with the experience of José Roberto Marques, IBC President, makes the Master Coach Certification Program in Brazil the pre-iminent course in Brazil by far..

COUNCIL

Letter of Accreditation to the Instituto Brasileiro de Coaching - IBC

The International Coaching Council (ICC-founded in 1998) is internationally recognized as the leading accreditation body for workplace and other specialist coaching disciplines. Its mission is to raise the quality of the Coaching profession by developing the highest level of education for the Coaching professional and standards of ethics and practice. ICC Members seek to stand out from the general coaching market by providing their clients exceptional service.

When you become an accredited Coach of the International Coaching Council (ICC), you are granted a quality seal that demonstrates that you have had the best of training and development in Coaching.

Following BCI's rigorous process of selecting an exclusive partner in Brazil, IBC stood-out as the most competent institution with a large staff and physical structure to best promote all professional support and coach training programs.

IBC is clearly the market leader in Brazil. It has a long standing commitment to excellence and ethics that has helped it become the largest and most successful training school of coaches in Brazil. Today, IBC provides comprehensive academic support, mentoring and guidance. This together with its association with the International Coaching Council means it can continually evolve and develop a world-class range of products and services. .

This document formally recognizes the authority the Brazilian Institute of Coaching - IBC has been granted to accredit Coaches for entry into the international body of ICC members.
